

IMMANUEL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Hope for Haiti Benefit Concert featuring Johan Stengård

MILWAUKEE, February 4, 2010 — On Sunday afternoon, February 21, Immanuel Presbyterian Church, 1100 N. Astor Street, will welcome renowned Swedish saxophonist Johan Stengård. Mr. Stengård will play a benefit concert for Haiti earthquake relief at 3:00 p.m. in Immanuel's Sanctuary. The event is co-sponsored by the Center for International Health and is open to the public. A free-will offering will be received with all proceeds benefiting Haiti relief efforts.

A globe-trotting virtuoso on both tenor and soprano saxophone, Mr. Stengård has performed often in Chicago and Milwaukee venues. He has earned a world-class reputation as a unique and soulful musician with a repertoire ranging from popular favorites like "Somewhere Over the Rainbow" and "Amazing Grace" to classical masterpieces such as the operatic "Nessun Dorma." Between selections, he integrates stories about his personal history and world travels. He has created 17 solo albums.

Located on Milwaukee's historic lower east side, Immanuel Presbyterian Church seeks to be a welcoming and inclusive place of worship for all people. Visitors are always welcome. Immanuel Presbyterian Church worships each Sunday morning at 10:00, continuing its heritage as Milwaukee's oldest congregation, founded in 1837. The mission of Immanuel Church is to affirm God's call to be a servant of Christ and a steward of the Gospel through worship, education, and mission. Immanuel is a congregation of the Presbyterian Church (USA).

The Center for International Health is an internationally recognized 501(c)3 organization that offers training, consultation, technical assistance, material resources and health systems development techniques to strengthen communities, their health care systems and the capabilities of their health professionals in emerging and developing countries.
